Samir Baala fait le pont...

■ La seconde édition de la Bruggelauf à Bâle a été remportée hier par Samir Baala. Le Ludovicien, malgré la chaleur, a écrasé ses adversaires en bouclant les 16,1 km en moins de 54'.

Première réussite pour le Ludovicien qui découvrait hier la fameuse Bruggelauf, la course des ponts – le Stadtlauflauf, le Dreiländerlauf... pas moins de cinq ponts – et ses fameux 16,1 km. Un dix mille qui convenait parfaitement bien à Samir Baala en pleine préparation avant les championnats de France de marathon programmés en octobre prochain à Dunkerque.

Une course en solo

Mais le frère de Mehdi ne s'attendait pas à une course aussi difficile, «en fait les montées sont très difficiles, ce sont de véritables "casse-cul" et le soleil tapait fort. J'ai horreur de la chaleur... je préfère courir dans le froid. En plus pour ne rien arranger, il y avait un vent de face assez soutenu!».

Cela n'aura finalement pas plus perturbé que cela le sociétaire du Saint-Louis Running Club qui termine seul en tête, loin devant ses poursuivants.

«En fait on était un petit groupe... mais il a vite éclaté après le troisième kilomètre.

Après j'ai fait la course en tête avec juste dans mon sillage un Russe... Vassili Kraus (Lörrach-Stetten).

«J'ai géré mon effort... c'est lui finalement qui a lâché du terrain. je n'ai pas eu besoin d'accélérer le rythme pour le distancer», explique-t-il.

«Ma seule inquiétude c'était de craquer en raison de cette chaleur!», mais le Frontalier a tenu bon et terminé en 53'59" à plus d'une minute de Kraus Vassili (55'11").

Récemment vainqueur de la nocturne du Hans à Obernai,

Samir Baala s'apprête à rejoindre Font-Romeu pour une stage d'une durée de trois semaines.
